

Ambassador Nick Archer visited Helsingør Gymnasium on Wednesday 2nd September 2009 to speak on climate change ahead of COP15

Ambassador Archer being introduced to the students before his presentation

The students listened and asked question regarding climate change and the need for a comprehensive deal at COP15

After his presentation, Ambassador Archer spoke to the students who had many follow up questions

